Band, Pancakes, Carnival Rides To Be Downtown L.G. Attractions

Grove Firms To Stay Up And Promote

If the Lemon Grove business district appears more sophisticated nowadays, it is because it was intended that way. The town is fancying up its facade and staying up later.

The merchants' group, meeting last week, decided to embark on a clean-up program, and to stay open every Friday evening until 9 p.m.

A marching unit from Mt. Miguel high school will parade in the downtown section of the Grove to herald the open Friday night arrangement.

It will be the 16-piece Pep band under the direction of Larry Christiansen and the student leadership of Gary Withem. At 4 p.m. they will provide a half hour concert in the Best Buy market parking lot.

Meanwhile, Mayfair market on Broadway has brought a carnival ride group to Lemon Grove and it will be in operation over the weekend. Discount tickets will be available at L.G. stores showing a Carnival placard in the window. The carnival will run Thursday through Sunday.

Saturday, the Kiwanis club's annual pancake project will be held at the L.G. junior high school starting at 7 a.m. Local business firms have been publicizing the event to shoppers as part of a program to encourage local residents to become more active in community events . . . including shopping at home.

A series of meetings, sponsored by the merchants' group, will provide a regular schedule of attractions in mid-town Lemon Grove starting this week with the marching music.

Part of the program will encourage shoppers who dislike the shopping center's park-and-walk feature to return to ease of parking and shopping at the merchant's front door.

No Place For Human Misery

A persistent rumor regarding Convair has been making the rounds and we make mention of it here only to refute it.

The story goes that federal aid is being withheld from Convair because the county supported Congressmen (Utt, Wilson, Kuchel) and the punishment is being used as a political tool.

To show the voters of the area how mistaken they were in supporting these men, so the rumor goes, aid will not be forthcoming until it suits the Democrats.

It will suit the Democrats at a time when Democratic Governor Brown, in a ddamatic appeal to Democratic President J. F. Kennedy, will get enough contracts to level off the employment at Convair. This purportedly, will show voters in whom to place their faith.

Common logic would tell most persons that such rumors are unfounded, but when the economy is down and people are afraid, many will believe anything that shows a straight-line cause-and-effect.

If the Democrats were playing cat-and-mouse with the livelihood and well-being of innocent S.D. County Americans, the opposing political parties would shout the charges for all the world to hear. They would be joined by many thoughtful Democrats.

Additionally, many of the employes being harried by Convair attrition are Democrats and the Party would lose these too if there were truth in the rumor.

Creating human misery as a facet of political expediency is a treasonable act, and no one should suggest htat the Office of our Presidency would stoop to such activity.

Things in the county are a little shaky but enough solid forces are emerging to make fair times in S.D. a certainty again.

Better Town Through Loyalty

Untrue rumors of Convair's closing in recent weeks have frightened residents of San Diego county, and in the L.G.-S.V. area in particular.

Last week, a spokesman for Convair stated publicly and categorically that the firm is not only staying in business, but it is negotiating for contracts that could result in a rehiring program. State and federal officials aware that the fright-causing rumors have had a deteriorating effect on residents here, are taking steps to alleviate the crises.

Last week, the business community of L.G. in a meeting to see what the actual situation was, learned that the two L.G. banks had increased deposits by more than a half millions dollars since October. This is the money people have put aside to soften the cushion "when Convair closes," was an opinion.

Not only is Convair not closing but as of March 1, employment was up in S.D. county and our U.S. Representatives are working astutely to provide contracts in the county which would further increase employment. There are 312,000 people employed here. That's 5,200 more than the same period last year but 3,400 less than in January.

The jobless ranks total 28,600, also up. 2,900 jobless have been added since the first of the year.

FIRST WINNER NAMED IN NEW BABY OF THE WEEK CONTEST

STACEY LOONEY

Stacey Looney, 22-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Looney, of 3658 Niblick dr., was selected winner this week of the first phase of the Baby of the Week contest. Stacey's parents will choose 30 gifts for her from among local merchants. The $50-$150 cash bonus was not awarded to the winner since no new subscription accompanied the entry.

It is not necessary to turn in new subscriptions to this newspaper to win the prizes, it was pointed out. The winner gets these. The cash bonus, an award of this newspaper, is offered as an extra attraction to obtain more readers in its program of reader growth.

The contest is a continuing one so you may still enter.

There will be a winner selected for every week for at least eight weeks, with the whole list of prizes to be distributed every week.

Whether the baby is chosen the winner or not, the parents will be given a 5x7 picture of the baby without charge or obligation. Entry blanks may be picked up at local merchants whose advertisement appears elsewhere in this newspaper.

The picture will be taken at the Memory Lane Photo Studio in the Grove Theatre bldg., 3471 Imperial ave., L.G. The picture of the winner will be published in this newspaper.

During the first week the demand for entry blanks was so great that a new supply had to be printed on a rush basis.

The contest is as simple as they come. Get a registration blank at the list of merchants in the announcement ad. Take the baby (or grandchild) to the Memory Lane Studios . . . and you're in the contest. If you wish to try for the bonus, ask your friend or neighbor to subscribe to this newspaper. It must be a new, paid subscription, however.

The Memory Lane Photo Studio will be open Fridays and Saturdays from 10 a.m.-3 p.m. and Sundays 11 a.m.-3 p.m.

The 5x7 photo is yours to keep, free of any charge.

SOME SOMEWHAT OLD DOG NEWS REACHES HERE ABOUT "NELLE'S BABETTE"

Nelle's Babette is a dog, a Doberman Pinscher in fact. Babette's owners, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Osborne of 3031 Central ave., Spring Valley called to say that Babette the Pinscher won a "five-point major" at the Feb. 18 dog show in Balboa Park held by the Silver Bay Kennel Club.

Mrs. Osborne said that a Santee dog handler well-known in the U.S. and Canada handled their dog. He is Ronald Muller.

Babette, who is 18-months-old won over 32 other Pinschers, Dobermans all.

The dictionary says that Doberman Pinschers were originally bred in Germany and are named after their first breeder. It further states that Dobermans are used as watch-dogs and police dogs. They're good in a pinch.

Mail Bag

Mrs. Betts, who lives in Lemon Grove, has spent several years in Sacramento as wife of the State Treasurer. Her observations are interesting . . . particularly in light of a persistant rumor that she may file as a Democratic Assembly candidate for the 77th District.

Mrs. Betts writes:

Dear Editor:

Since returning home from Sacramento I've had so many people ask me about our State Capitol, the climate, the people, etc., I thought this might be a good way to tell a lot of friends as much as I could about it.

As our State Capitol we can be very proud of Sacramento. It's a beautiful city, the streets are all lined with trees, and in the spring you can almost watch the leaves grow each day. Camellias grow in abundance—the roses are beautiful and the cherries are out of this world. Curbs are made so that you park on them, it's very strange at first, but you get used to it. Leaves and clippings are raked into the streets and twice a week they're swept up. It's hot in the summer time so you learn to keep out of the sun, and get all your work done early in the morning. It's nippy in the winter, gives you vim and vigor, and makes you appreciate Southern California.

Sacramento is a friendly town. People smile and say "hello." They're in the midst of growing pains, but it still maintains that 'small town' atmosphere. It's a nice place to visit, an even nicer place to live. I like it, so do my children.

There's an excitement about the place. There you are in the midst of our government—people are more interested in what's going on in the world and in our state—maybe because so many of them are personally involved, or their neighbors are. And, yet, we're all a part of our government, whether we're employed by them or not—for we are responsible for our government. Aren't we the ones who elect our officials who run it? But how many of us really know who our representatives are, and what they do? Is the "average voter" a person who tries to study each candidate and their beliefs, and after they're elected, follow what they do and how they vote? Does the "average voter" let his representative know what his views are? Does he ever write and say "thank you, you've done a good job?" I fear the "average voter" isn't any of these. How many times does one hear the word "politician" said in such a way it's almost a "dirty" word? Too many time, I'm afraid! Yet politicians run our country—make the laws we live by. It's a proud profession, with many fine, good people—people who aren't paid enough for the amount of time and energy they put into their work. The hours are long and hard. Thanks are few and criticisms many. But, we're lucky here in California that we have such dedicated public servants. If we have any bad apples in the barrel maybe it's our fault—malbe we didn't look hard enough at the candidates, or what they stood for—maybe we just didn't care enough, couldn't be bothered—"let the other fellow worry about politics, I'm just not interested!" If that's the case, we have no room to complain. Maybe if we knew a little more about our government and what makes it tick, maybe we would have more intedest in our elections.

Of course, there are so many parts making up our government—so many things to learn. One hardly knows where to start—to me the most exciting place in Sacramento was the the Assembly — 80 people — went to Sacrament there were two women in the Assembly—Pauline Davis who is still there and Dorothy Donahoe. Dorothy passed away last year, and we all lost a good and valued friend—Pauline is Chairman of the Fish and Game Committee, the only woman in the United States to have such an honor. In the Assembly we have Attorneys, Accountants, Teachers, College Professors, Insurance men, Businessmen, Farmers, Engineers, Newspaper publisher, Social Worker, Realtors, Builders, one Actor and one Mink Farmer. We have only 3 full time Legislators. Our Assemblymen come from all walks of life—they all have one goal in mind, to make this a finer state to be in.

The first few times I went to the Assembly I was completely in a daze—I couldn't figure out what in the world they were doing—but, it's like a magnet, it keeps drawing you back just to see what's going to happen. Then after a while you find out that most of the debate, pro and con, is done in Committee. (Not all, for sometimes it gets pretty heated there on the floor). Committee hearings are where the real work goes on. Everyone who wants to be heard on a bill is given the opportunity before a committee—or a sub-committee. Did you know you could appear before a State Committee if you wanted to? Did you know you could sit on the floor of the Assembly or the Senate as a guest of your Assemblyman or Senator? All you need is a pass from them, which you get at their office. Each day as you sit there you'll see children come in by groups—an opportunity the children in Southern California miss.

Up in the gallery are familiar faces of the lobbyists — more formally called Legislative Advocates. They are not allowed on the floor of the Assembly—no one is who might influence the voting. They are an important part of the scenery and an important part of our government.

How many voters know who our State Constitutional Officers are, and what they do? Why is the "Speaker" of the Assembly such an important position? Why do people give up their privacy to become politicians? What sort of people are they? They're people, like you and me, but maybe most of them care just a little bit more than the "average voter" what happens.

I've been fortunate enough, the past 3 years, to spend many hours with the people who run our State, and even if I didn't always agree with everything they did, I'm very proud to call most of them "friend"—from them I've learned a lot I hope I can pass on to you in the next few weeks. Information, I hope, that will help you to know a little better how your government is run and by whom.

Sarah Betts

The DIMMER VIEW

As soon as a little more confidence returns the increased bank savings will be used to buy goods and services which people have been denying themselves during the troubled period now passing. Much of this money should be spent with the dependable, stable firms along Lemon Grove's business streets because an economically sound business community contributes much to a happy residential community.

We invite our readers to contribute to local prosperity by dealing with the shops at home. The "attractive image" created by away-from-home business firms to encourage your purchases is, in the end, just that, an image. Merchandise costs just so much and must be sold accordingly.

It is a heartening truism that hometown loyalty pays good dividends in comfort, convenience and savings.

Assemblywoman Can Win . . If She Runs

In this issue of the paper is a letter to the editor from Sarah Betts who lives on Palm st., in Lemon Grove.

In her letter she refers to Sacramento with a caress seldom seen outside professional writers. As wife of the State Treasurer, she spent several years in Sacramento working and socializing with the state's lawmakers. She apparently loves the Capitol and the people who work there, if her communication can be used as a criterion. Her feeling for the whole political operation seems to be inspired . . . so much so that it has been suggested that she might run for the assembly seat in the 77th district, a district left open by Sheridan Hegland who is now seeking a seat in the U.S. House of Representatives.

We asked Mrs. Betts if she was seeking the office and she said no. "I would if people encouraged me enough," she added.

Sarah Betts, the attractive mother of six nearly-grown children, is a Democrat. She would be running in the primary against Candidates Bear and Rodriguez. We think she would defeat them under normal campaign operations.

Since Republicans are registered less profusely than Democrats, she would be destined to take the election if the election followed party lines.

We don't know whether Sarah Betts would make a good assemblywoman or not. We do know that she has more Sacramento contacts and savvy than some condidates already elected.

We are not going to suggest that you urge Mrs. Betts to run because we prefer to have a Democratic candidate win whom our good Republican candidate can clobber in November. But if Sarah Betts runs and makes a good campaign of it, it may be that we'll be addressing her as Mrs. Assemblywoman come November.

County Eyes $4½ Million Road Tax Plan

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A public hearing on a county road program that would require a $4,500,000 increase in taxes is set for March 20 before the County Board of Supervisors.

The hearing is to be on a report made to Supervisors by a road policy committee that worked for about a year. Board members are already split on what parts of the report should be put into law.

The committee recommendation to bring the county's roads up to standard, a project that would require a total of $175 million, would be financed by diverting vehicle taxes received from the state into the road department from the general fund.

It is proposed that this diversion start in the next fiscal year, with an allocation of $500,000. The diversion would be increased by $500,000 each year, until the $4,500,000 now being received from vehicle taxes and going into the general fund would be used for road projects.

T. M. Heggland, chief administrative officer, reports that the diversion of $4,500,000 from general funds would require a boost of 28 cents in the tax rate.

Supervisors Cozens and Gibson indicate they support the report, but Supervisors Bird, Dent and Austin are on record in opposition.

In addition to urging that roads be brought up to standard, the committee is also recommending policies on rights of way, subdivisions, road maintenance and other road matters.

License Number Taken

Larry J. Jacobs, 22, a title-searcher of 7724 University ave. La Mesa, told sheriff's deputies that a young man, about his own age, hit him on the nose at Broadway and Kempf st., L.G. when he alighted from his car earlier this week.

Jacobs said the man piled out of his car with four others and accosted him. One of the men, about 22 and weighing about 180 pounds, struck him on the nose, knocking off his glasses. When Jacobs refused to fight them all, they got back in the car and drove off. The sheriff's dept. was given the car's license number.

Family dinners can be so much more enjoyable and economical when the homemaker is an expert on beef. You can be an expert on beef if you attend my next cooking school. It's entitled "All About Beef." I will assist our special guest for the day in a very interesting program on how to select, store and cook beef in many different ways.

Our guest will be Mrs. Dorothy Huse, Director of Consumer Education and Merchandising for the California Beef Council. Mrs. Huse will present the program on Tuesday, March 13, from 12:30 to 2 p.m., and again Tuesday, March 27, from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. in the comfortable auditorium of San Diego Gas & Electric Company's Eastern District Office, at 104 North Johnson Street in El Cajon.

Mrs. Huse will tell you how to get more beef for your dollar and give you needed information on selecting beef, cooking times and temperatures. We will prepare a Gourmet Roast from fresh brisket, a Beef Bourguignon, a London Broil, and show you how to get three meals out of a 7 Bone pot roast.

You'll receive free recipes and a beef buying guide; and of course, we will have the usual free door prizes. Admission is free, so why not join us and learn "All About Beef."

In the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy admonishes, "Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affections and aims grow spiritual,—they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite,—in order that sin and mortality may be put off" (p. 265).

GOD'S MINUTE

REV. H. C. BAKKEN

LENT

Yesterday was "Ash Wednesday," the first day of Lent. This is a period when God's people consider the suffering and death which our Lord experienced on our behalf. We move into the narow channel which leads to the cross where we get to see the real suffering which had to be endured for our redemption.

LG-SV-LM Backyard Swim Program Gets Started

A big 1962 project to "waterproof" Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and La Mesa children got underway here when the backyard swim program organizers met last week at the home of area chairman, Mrs. V. Sozzani.

They discussed a program the first phase of which begins March 9 when classes for instructors get underway. These instructors later in the season will teach children to swim, thereby "waterproofing" them.

Each year thousands of children die in this country by drowning. The backyard swim program was begun under the auspices of the Red Cross and PTAs to change this picture. Now representatives from each school participate.

Information about classes for instructors can be obtained by calling Mrs. Sozzani at JU 3-2526 or the Red Cross at CY 5-5121.

Private pools are sought for use by the backyard swim program which seeks to protect all children from drowning. People with pools who would like to be part of the program are also asked to call the above phone number.

People who already know two swimming strokes are needed as instructors, organizers of the program said. The special course to further train them consists of seven two-hour lessons.

Miguel Bugler Aspires To Be A Band Leader

A boy with his eyes turned toward a musical career blows Mount Miguel's call to colors each morning at 8:07 a.m. He is Alan Remele, and he plans to be a member or leader of a band in the future. He is a sophomore and has been taking trumpet lessons for the past four years.

"I feel that it is a great honor to be a school bugler, and I enjoy it very much. By doing this I am not only serving my school, but also honoring my country," said Alan.

Alan practices for two hours a day, besides his 15-minute warmup period each morning.

In the near future, he plans to become a member of a local 7-piece band, "The Naturals," composed mainly of students from Mt. Miguel and Helix. They play for dances and social functions in the San Diego area.

Alan, a member of the Mt. Miguel Concert Band, Marching Band, and Pep Band, also has long-range plans for Navy service.

Area's Fairest Being Sought

The annual search for San Diego County's Fairest of the Fair, who will reign over the Southern California Exposition and County Fair June 29 - July 9, begins this week in 15 communities.

It will end early in June when judges select the winner at the final contest, scheduled for Wegeforth Bowl at the Zoo. Last year's winner was Miss Sally Vining, of La Jolla.

An estimated 250 candidates who must never have been married, and from 16 to 26 in age, are expected to compete in the 15 local contest during March April and May with local winners vying for the '62 title in the June finals.

According to contest rules the contestant must be a bona-fide resident of the community or district. Judging will be on a point basis for beauty of face and figure, poise and personality.

Prizes for the winner include an all-expense week's trip on Western Airlines to the Seattle Century 21 world's fair, and merchandise valued at $1,000.

Local contests will be at the Lemon Grove Kiwanis club April 24.
